WASHINGTON EVER GLORIOUS

Washington to thee we sing,
  Praised be thy name
Grant to us leadership, true worth,
  Our aim.
Ours is the spirit strong,
  Our hearts with love aflame;
All honor to thee we bring,
  Fair Washington.

May we with courage strong,
  Each year renew
Our faith in that freedom
  Our forefathers knew.
Loud let our anthem ring,
  And shouts with glad acclaim;
All honor, Oh Washington,
  To thy fair name.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL SONG

Washington High School,
Hats off to thee!
To our colors, true we shall ever be;
Firm and strong, united are we!
Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah,
Rah, for our Washington High.

The Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1953

We, the members of the Class of 1953 of Washington High School, realizing that at last our happy days within these walls are drawing to an end and recognizing that, individually and severally, we have numerous skills, talents, and possessions which will be useless in our next life, do herewith undertake to dispose of them to those underclassmen for whom, we judge, they are best suited. We urge each recipient of a gift to cherish it well and use it kindly.

We, Josephine Chrapliwy and Maureen Arnold, will nothing to nobody because everything we have we need . . . I, Ralph Wierzbinski, will my ability in physics class to Eugene Rysdorf, who seemed to have none . . . We, Alex Benko, Jim Pasman, and George Kovatch, will our seats in 123 and our fine relations with Miss Martindale, to any underclassmen.

I, Dick Pusztai, will Joe Kosakiewicz, my football jersey No. 15, and hope he has better luck than I did . . . I, Tom Traszkowski, of sound mind and body, will Steve "Zipper Rzepnicki my art masterpieces . . . I, Shirley Meszaros, will to my sister MiMi all my prayers that she may find one, and only one, steady boy friend.

We, Joe Papczynski and Eugene Krych, will our crib-boy job to any two boys who think they can hold it as long as we have . . . We, Pat Kurdys, Marline Fuessel, and Joan Lekarczyk, will the excitement of our "outside activities" to Jim Kraft, Bill Phillips, and Gilbert Sullivan, who, we are sure, can make the most of any situation . . . I, Frances Howell, will to my sister Mildred my ability to get to school on time.

I, Joan Lach, will my hall chair to my niece, Jojo Paprocki . . . I, Barbara Carter, will Bill Howell to Willa Gilkey and Sarah Miller . . . We, Nancy Paczkowski and Gladys Badowski, will our ability to argue and still get along for two years to "Red" and "Frasz", who can't . . . I, Richard Hauguel, will my ability to "fake" a song to "Buzzy", who plays straight music only.

I, Lavoda Schofield, will by ability to finish school without skipping to any underclassman who thinks he can do so . . . We, Rita Kania, Nancy Landuit, and Mary Miko, will our ability to comb our hair in 15 minutes, to "Cookie", who usually needs an hour to do it.

I, Pat Theodoroff, will my ability to study to my brother, Dick, who will need it next year . . . I, Francis Hoath, will my "1935 Plymouth" to my brother — if it will run that long . . . I, Kathleen Cavinder, will to Lorraine Madison, my ability to write my own excuses and not get caught . . . I, Georgianna Klosinski, will to Loretta Korpal my ability to still know how to drive after taking Mr. Redling's course.

I, Carl Lipinski, will my glasses to Bob Lee Van, so he can see the basket . . . I, Helen Schofield, will my ability to finish school without being in detention to any underclassman . . . We, Rene Van Parys and Lewis Ericson, will our good looks and various remarkable talents to those underclassmen who are deserving of them . . . I, Eleanor McClone, will my locker to my sis, and her five playmates. The number is 230: Keep it in peppy condition, Kiddies!

I Richard Deguch, will my ability to knock down hurdles to any underclassman who is willing to break his foot . . . I, Mary Ann Lichkay, will to my sister, Dot, all my hopes that she doesn't beat me to the altar . . . I, Tom Burzynski, will my blush to any underclassman who wants it.

I, Hazleen Young, will my ability to skip school to Versena and Kathleen, who can use it if they want to . . . I, Bob Lisenko, will to Bob Niespodziany a ring, so he can get married . . . We, Jim Kish and Richard Schultz will to whoever wants them our hall passes.

I, Virginia Arelt, will my self-control to Richard Piekarski . . . I, Mary Lewis, will to Louise Dobbs my ability to get up at 7:30 and still get to school on time . . . I, Pat Boosi, will my ability to go steady and still be the biggest flirt, to Dolores Frasz, who seems to get caught.

I, Joyce Hines, will my ability to go steady with one person for three years to my brother, Norman, who can't seem to stick with one girl for a week . . . I, Yolanda Koller, will my ability to pass all the courses in high school to Rita Balukiewicz . . . We, Joan Luczyk and Janet Zarobinski, will our ability to get away with things, to the underclassmen who don't know the tricks of life yet.

We, Mary Jo Winkler and Esther Zywert, will our happy mood in shorthand class to any sad-sack who could use it . . . I, Camille Skubiszewski, will all my rides home every Thursday from St. Casimir's dances to Ann Toth . . . I, Joan Rebics, will my neat locker to Lucille Crowell. Don't stand too close when you open the door!

I, Margie Plencner, will my ability to go steady for three years to any underclassman who would like to try it . . . I, Dennis Zawierucha, will my last name to Leonard Jones . . . We, Adele Orzechowski and Rita Wroblew- ski, will our ability to leave the house every morning only at 8:00 to Joan Kazmierczak and Art Kush, who think you have to leave at 7:30.

I, Sylvia Nowak, will my long hair to any underclassmen who can't grow his . . . I, Ronald Milewski, will my ability to stay in class to June Urbanski, who always seems to be wandering around the halls . . . I, Matt Griffin, will my spirit to win and keep on winning to any underclassmen who must weigh 175 pounds . . . I, Ray Branchik, will my nose to any underclassman who thinks he is big enough to carry it.

I, Rene Van De Velde, will to Ronnie Meisberg my fine ability to get along with Mr. Hayes in math classes . . . I, Jerry Stajkowski, will my ability to stay out of trouble in my four years of high school, to any underclassman who wants it . . . We, Duane Hanyzewski, and Dan Van Lake, will our hound dogs to Joe Kozakiewicz and Mike Mondovics, so they can get some rabbits while these dogs are hunting squirrels.

I, Dan Dolniak, will my enthusiasm and willingness to run the mile in track and cross country to Ronald Andrejewski. Also, my ability to play my clarinet to Roger Ross . . . I, Buddy Moore, will my ability to skip class fifth and sixth hour to any one who has a faster car than John Byers . . . I, Dan Verheye, will my enormous ambition to learn to Don Gray and Thomas Andrysiak.

We, Virginia Kusz and Elizabeth Forray, will our little 4 by 6 office and other lovable assets to Miss X or any deserving underclassman who thinks being an editor is a snap . . . I, Lorraine Mynsberge, will my pretty little piece of elastic with the pink ribbon to anyone who needs it for a certain purpose . . . I, Rodney Brown, will my ability to go to two schools at once and still skip classes without getting caught to anyone who thinks he can . . . We, Pat Abraham and Joan Jackowiak, will our battered, torn, but still handsome picture of "Mr. X" on our locker door to Audrey Abraham and Janet Runnels, with the hope that they can put it together and make it last for another year . . . I, Barbara Lukavich, will my patience in bookkeeping class to my sister Christine Lukavich.

I, Marion Jagmin, will a certain ability to elude work until thrown out of the house to any underclassman who wants it . . . I, Dale Fozo, will the scars and bruises you receive in football to big, Johnny Chizar . . . I, Bob Wasowski, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Don Ogorek . . . I, Richard Grayzck, will my ability to sneak out of machine shop everyday without getting caught to Mike Mondovics . . . I, Cas Wesolek, will the privilege of getting Miss Fortin's coffee to Kovach . . . We, Margaret Hadary and Shirley Gwynn, will our outstanding ability to laugh up and down and underneath the scales and finish in our tinkly horse laugh to any "freshie" big enough to carry the load.

Finally, to the class of 1954, we leave our privileges, our unquestionable responsibilities, and our fun as seniors; and to all the underclassmen, to be cultivated and increased, our happiness in these halls. We charge you all to be good Panthers.

Class History

In the fall of 1949, Washington High School opened its green curtains to a four-act play with a group of timid freshmen as the cast.

We experienced our first high school gathering late in the fall at the after-school "get-acquainted" party. When spring came, six freshmen participated in the musical, "The Mikado". They were Camille Skubiszewski, Maureen Arnold, Shirley Gwynn, Marline Fuessel, Virginia Kusz, and Danny Van Lake. As the end of the year arrived with Class Day, Pat Abraham was given the D. A. R. Citizenship award.

For our second act we chose Pat Abraham as our president. In the early winter we advanced to the "adult stage" and our after-school parties now became night dances. Pat Theodoroff brought honor to our sophomore class when she participated in a radio program panel "South Bend Junior Town Meeting of the Air". Maureen Arnold was the "B" squad cheerleader. This was the year that the yellow buses started appearing around Washington. In them came our new classmates from the country and from Woodrow Wilson.

Now an intermission and the third act will begin.

Our junior year and we are really getting up there. The officers for that year were Dale Fozo, president; Virginia Kusz, vice-president; Gerald Stajkowski, secretary; Pat Wells, treasurer; and Rene Van Parys, class historian. With the junior year came a surge of acting. There were sixteen out of our class who took part in the "Rose of Algeria", Ralph Wierzbinski, Mary Lewis, and Richard Deguch, having leads. With the junior year came the junior play, "Almost Eighteen". The leads were taken by Nancy Paczkowski, Georgianna Klosinski, Richard Schultz, Jim Pasman, Alex Benko, and Leonard Kanczuzewski. Then came that eventful night in May and our first Prom. This was the first combined Junior-Senior Prom at Washington. Among those chosen on the court from our class were Joan Lach, Nancy Paczkowski, and Barbara Tobolski. At the close of the year, Pat Wells was chosen to be Student Council President for our Senior year.

Drawing the curtain on our childhood, we opened for the last act, our immortal senior year. This was our year of accomplishment, and as our leaders in sports, we chose Dale Fozo, and Matt Griffin as co-captains in football; George Kovatch as captain of the basketball team; Tom Burzynski as captain of the swimming team, and Alex Benko captain of the baseball team.

Leading various clubs were George Heynessens as president of the Engineers Club; Carl Lipinski, Hi-Y; Gladys Badowski, Panda Club; Dan Dolniak, Band; Joan Lekarczyk, Ushers' Club; and Bob Andert, chief operator for the Screen Club. Representing Washington as Junior Rotarians and Kiwanis men were Tom Burzynski, Alex Benko, Bob Lechtanski, Leonard Jurgonski, Ralph Wierzbinski, and George Kovatch.

Pat Abraham was given the honor of being the Panthers' queen for the Washington-Riley roundup. Her court included Joan Jackowiak, Virginia Arelt, Margie Hadary, Rita Wroblewski, Shirley Meszaros, Nancy Paczkowski, and Georgianna Klosinski.

Taking leads in our senior production "Clementine" were Joan Lach, Nancy Paczkowski, Pat Theodoroff, Ray Branchik, Richard Schultz, and Bob Lechtanski. There were many seniors in the Glee Club and band production, "An Evening of Music".

Elizabeth Forray and Shirley Rzeszewski were chosen to head the production of our yearbook "Memory Lane". Our Hatchet Editor for the year was Virginia Kusz. This year our school paper took a step forward and became a daily paper under the leadership of Shirley Rzeszewski and Virginia Kusz.

Our officers for the year had been George Kovatch, president first semester; Alex Benko, president second semester; Gerald Stajkowski, secretary; Dale Fozo, treasurer; Rene Van Parys, historian.

Last was the announcement of our scholastic leaders. Valedictorian was Pat Theodoroff. Salutatorian was Elizabeth Forray.

So with this final act, we have closed the curtains on a drama never again to be relived by the class of 1953. We cannot take an encore as Father Time as shown us that we cannot go back, but must keep on, always bringing honor to our names. So we promise to you, underclassmen and faculty, that the spirit of Washington High School will remain in our hearts in all the years of our future. We shall strive to proceed "Ever Onward."

The Washington High School Graduates' Pledge

I pledge myself

To accept the duties and responsibilities imposed upon me as an American citizen:

To use all the facilities
which this free country has given me
for continuing to grow in mind and spirit;

To participate honorably
in the civic life of our nation;

Never to discriminate against any man
because of his race, his creed, or his color and to oppose all who do so;

To worship God as my conscience dictates;
To honor and defend my country
with my faith, my work, and my life;

And to strive for the peace and welfare of all human kind.

This I pledge to you,

my parents, my teachers, my community,
who have made it possible for me to enjoy the privileges
of a land in which these ideals are upheld.

I pledge it

so that my generation and my posterity may keep marching

"EVER ONWARD"

The Graduates' Pledge is a unique feature of commencement at Washington High School. The pledge was written by members of the class of 1943, who were graduating in a time of great tension. The Second World War was in full swing. Of the boys, many January graduates of the class were already in the services; all the June members expected to be called in a few weeks. Of the girls, most were already working part-time in offices or factories and expected to begin full-time immediately. Everyone, student and adult, was constantly faced with the responsibilities of citizenship; everyone was particularly sensitive to the differences in ideals between ourselves and our opponents.

In this atmosphere, members of the class looked upon their commencement as a formal entrance into a serious life. A committee drew up this pledge, which expressed their recognition of how, as graduates of an American high school, they must live.

On graduation night, just before their diplomas were handed to them, they rose and repeated the pledge, phrase by phrase, as it was administered by Mr. F. O. Schoeppel, the principal. It was their hope that all succeeding classes would repeat the custom, and no class has failed to do so.

Members of the committee who wrote the pledge were Hildegarde Tamke, Elizabeth Teichman, and Ernest Wojtasik.

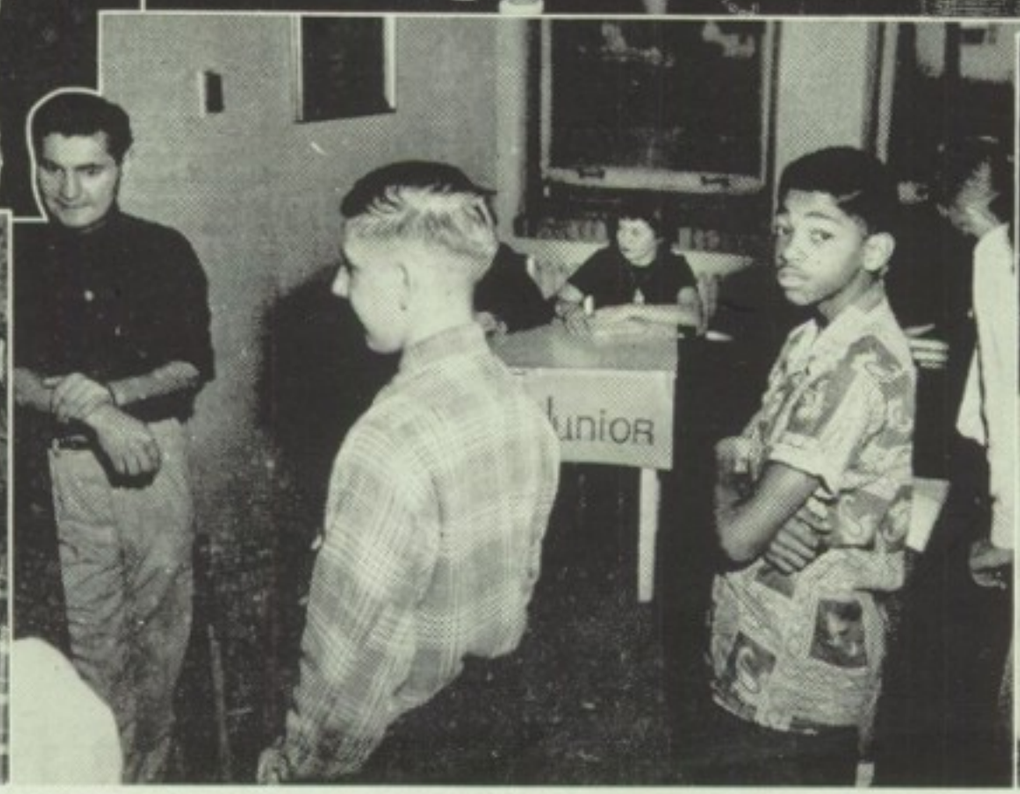
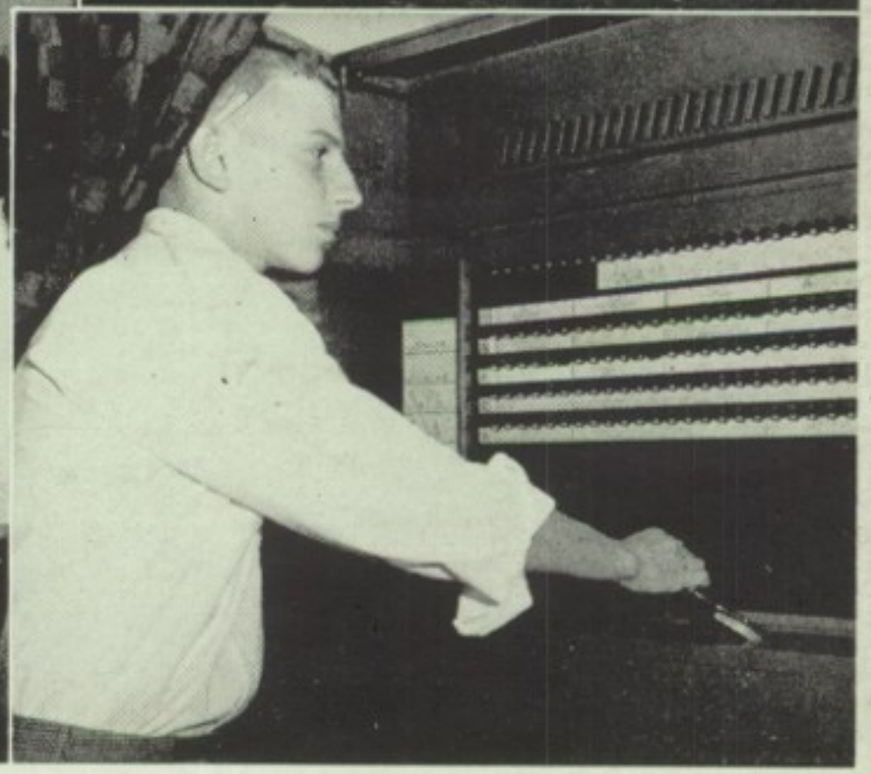
THE DIGNITY OF SENIOR YEAR seems really to begin with that junior prom in the spring: here we line up for the Grand March in the Progress Club on that eventful night; the BIG event of the fall was the Washington-Riley Round-up and the selection of the queen to preside over that all-important game: Fozo crowns the queen at Walker Field . . . she trades bouquets with Riley's queen at the game . . . with her court . . . she rides to the event.





THE ELECTION! SENIORS, in keeping with their dignity as "top" of the school supervise the ballotting: Freshmen examine the slate . . . and study the candidates' election posters . . . the waiting line at the "polling place" (the nurse's room on other days) . . . the election clerks . . . the voters waiting their turn at the machine . . . Leonard about to perform his duty.

FACES WE WON'T FORGET—FACULTY: Miss Hunsberger is rarely seen this leisurely . . . Miss Martindale typically worried over her students . . . Mr. Wegner, one teacher who faithfully grades papers . . . Miss Fortin — "Say, fella, I want to talk with you!" . . . Mr. Covert fishing for one of his beloved specimens . . . Miss Walsh busy at work dictating shorthand . . . Mr. McNamara in deep concentration as always . . . Mr. Stamm always ready to give a word of advice or a helping hand . . . Mr. Brady checking attendance . . . Mr. Byers "filling up" the detention hall . . . Irene filling out a transcript of our credits . . . Miss Nichols fluttering through the office . . . Mr. Hayes giving one of his tough assignments.

CLASSMATES: THE STAGE CREW PRETENDING to be busy . . . Two Pats: "What are WE here for?" . . . Gladys and Nancy talking about the good old days . . . Five inseparables: Danny, John, Leonard, John, Gene . . . Georgianna trying to study social living on hall duty . . . A quartet — they may not sing but they're always "in tune": Lewis, George, Rene, Carl . . . Delores and Lorraine put on the finishing touches . . . Bus-full — and away we go to Indianapolis . . . Looking over the meat situation at Kingan's . . . Pat and Shirley "hurrying" before the bell rings . . . "Buzzbuzz" in 102 — "When the cat's away, the mice will play!" . . . Harmony — the well-known Four Sweets and One Bitter: . . . The feudin' kind: Dale and "Stack", two fellas who never quarrel. . . . The early morning get-together, discussing the world situation.

"MEMORY LANE" . . . The group who planned it: Jackowiak, Nowak, Rzeszewski, Forray, Theodoroff, Hadary, Landuit, Kania, Plencner, Burzynski . . . Pat chalks up sales . . . Pat and Gladys count the "take" . . . Tom thinks over the year's athletic record . . . Margaret checks our four years' records . . . Shirley turns her back to type . . . Elizabeth and Pat mount those tiny pictures . . . Sylvia tries a lay-out idea . . . Joan "touches up" our autographs . . . The Dedication Committee.

Panda Club

The PANDA CLUB, a group open to all senior girls and to seniors only, was organized about eight years ago. Members are expected to devote their time and energies to stimulating interest in Washington High School athletics and to being helpful in "pushing" other school activities among both seniors and underclassmen.

This year members conducted some of the pep assemblies and sold the programs (prepared by the Engineers' Club) at the football games. The year's activities will end with a luncheon late in May.

Miss Gertrude Fortin is sponsor of the club. This year Gladys Badowski has been president.

Class brains

class brawn

BRAWN! BUT CLASS BRAWN was not quite — not quite — equal to faculty brawn . . . as 50 to 52 on the scoreboard proves . . . as they tangled with each other one evening for the benefit of the United Fund . . . Robinson, Kelley, Pilarski, Stamm, Brady, Wegner, Zuchowski — they knew their "stuff" on the floor as well as in the classroom . . . Benko and "Stack" got their reward in presenting the money sack to Dr. Martin . . . Here are the "multi-lettermen": Stajkowski, Griffin, Benko, Kovatch, Pasman, Fozo.

SCENES WE WON'T FORGET: Kish pinning down a frog . . . Helen focusing a specimen . . . Leonard and Casimer at work . . . John Sanders shows them how . . . Watch these figures, Pat! . . . Kathleen and Shirley make the patient comfortable — with cardboard "accessories" . . . Sommers smooths a curve . . . George teaching senior English . . The social living class driven outdoors by plasterers . . . chemistry class "discovers" the thermite process . . . Earl and Bob get a bird's eye view of the Mammoth Cave country . . . Wierzbinski and Boosi ponder refraction in physics class . . . Joyce and Barbara watch Shirley try her luck on the "electric" . . . "Now, George, this is the way you do it", says Mr. Stillson . . . Mary Lewis practices the blow-pipe technique . . . Did advanced shorthand class ever look like this? . . . Richard struggles — with the machine or his audience?

THE ATHLETIC YEAR in retrospect: the football team had another banner year . . . winning the conference championship in November, only to have it taken away by a quirk of fate in April . . . the basketball team had a mediocre year . . . but who will ever forget the upset win over Elkhart during the season and Adams in the sectional? . . . swimming had its inauguration at Washington this year . . . the track team has begun a fairly successful season . . . the baseball team is a strong favorite for the conference title . . . All in all, our seniors have really had a good year of sports.
